

Respect Life Baby Project

SJBMS Service Project

October 2024

Collection dates: October 14-24

Back for another year, and in conjunction with the Catholic Social Teaching theme of the Life and Dignity of the Human Person, our SJBMS service project for October (Respect Life Month) is the Respect Life Baby Project.

In a friendly competition, homebases will collect new items for St. Martha's Baby Project. The purpose of this project is to create awareness of the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception and the needs of mothers who choose life for their babies who will be born in situations of need.
